

ATTENTION: ALL STUDENTS IN GEOSCIENCES, MINING & GEOLOGICAL ENGINEERING, GROUNDWATER & WATER RESOURCES, ENVIRONMENTAL, ENGINEERING, GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING AND ECONOMIC GEOLOGY PROGRAMS

The Arizona Section of the Association of Environmental & Engineering Geologists (AEG) and the Arizona Hydrological Society (AHS) are co-hosting the Fifth Annual Arizona AEG Student Night meeting on Tuesday April 6, 2010, 5:30 PM to 9:00 PM in the Memorial Union at Arizona State University. This event provides students studying in the many fields of applied geology with opportunities to meet professionals in practice, explore employment/internship opportunities, and make presentations on their current research projects or other work.

Highlights for students attending the meeting will include:

- “Mini Career Fair” networking and potential employer recruiting opportunities
- FREE DINNER! - Student’s dinner is paid for by AEG and AHS professional members
- Opportunity for students to meet and present their ongoing research and projects to professionals and faculty and students from other departments, schools, and locales of Arizona
- $200, $100 or $50 cash prizes for the top three student presentations

CALL FOR PAPERS: Students interested in presenting their research and projects at the meeting should submit an abstract (300 words or less) of their proposed presentation via email to Gregg Mitchell at the address below NO LATER THAN 12 pm on Friday, March 19, 2010. Upon receipt of all abstracts submitted by the deadline, approximately 3-4 will be selected for presentation at the meeting (with one possible alternate). Those selected will be notified by March 23, 2010. All selected final presentations must be in PowerPoint format, with length not to exceed 15 minutes, and allowing 3-5 minutes for questions and preparation for the following speaker. All students who submit abstracts but are not selected for presentation at the meeting are encouraged to create a poster or other still graphic presentation for display at the meeting event.
